

Load data from file/table to the respective table using ETL tool

ETL tool used : SAP BODS

Function : Case Transform

Case Transform can read data from a file/table and load into different target based on the different cases given inside the transform.

